Requirements
• 2.75 cumulative GPA at the time of application and maintained through departure
• Sophomore, Junior, or Senior

When
• Fall: late August to mid-December
• Spring: late January to late May
• Year: late August to late May

Coursework
22.5-27 UC quarter units, 5-6 classes per semester with US, international, and local students. All courses are taught in English.

All participants take at least 2 CIEE classes with other US students. CIEE subject areas include: Anthropology, Art History, Central European Studies, Economics, History, Hungarian Language, Literature, and Political Science.

You also have the option of taking up to 3 classes at the Corvinus University Business School with US, international, and local students. Corvinus subject areas include: Business, Computer Science, Economics, Finance, Management, Marketing, and Political Science. You may also pursue an internship for credit.

Program Highlights
• Internships for credit are available in start-ups, the Medical Robotics Research Center, the American Corner, universities, high schools, and other organizations. Volunteering is also available.
• Includes visits to sites of historical and cultural importance in Budapest and the surrounding areas.
• As a smaller program, participants will have more opportunities for local integration (getting out of the “American bubble”) and have a more personalized and supportive experience.

Housing
Live in newly renovated housing with American students near the Danube River, a 20-minute walk or 15-minute metro ride from Corvinus University. Both options include kitchens and access to a gym, study rooms, laundry, and wifi.
• Private studio apartment within a residence hall.
• Private room, shared bathroom, in an apartment of 2-3 people.

Scholarships
• After you submit your UCEAP application you will be asked to complete a CIEE application, which contains these CIEE scholarship applications:
