Participation in an eligible UCEAP program.

Students who are nationals of the host country are not eligible to be a Freeman intern in that country.

Internships with U.S. governmental agencies and on-campus or remote internships are not allowed.

Korean language fluency (reading, writing, or speaking) is required for internships in Korea.

Freeman Interns are responsible for securing their own positions.

Internships must be unpaid.

Complete a pre-departure process specific to the Freeman internship program.

Why Become a Freeman Intern?

Enhance your UCEAP experience by pursuing an internship! Employers look favorably upon students who have studied and interned abroad! Gain the professional characteristics that they’re looking for: cross-cultural skills, ability to succeed in a global workforce, and adaptability, especially since the work culture and styles are often different overseas. Best of all, gain practical, hands-on experience that you can include on your résumé.

STUDENT VOICES

“This internship has awoken a newfound interest for me in international development. I realized that it is something that I would consider for a career...Through my internship, I was able to more fully integrate myself into Thai culture. I was also able to work closely with local Thai people in my office, which taught me the value of good communication and cross-cultural collaboration.” - Allison O., UCSB EAP Thailand, Educational Development Center (EDC) Internship

“My main positions at my internship were: teacher assistant/lecturer, librarian, and international relations communication assistant. I worked with teachers to carry out lesson plans and delivered presentations. I read English stories to students, helped with exhibitions, and kept the library organized...My understanding of Taiwanese culture, customs, and language deepened because of my regular interactions with students, staff, and volunteers. I developed public speaking skills, time management, and interpersonal skills.” - Annette L., UCSB EAP Taiwan, Long An Elementary School Internship
