| Coursework               | Students enroll in two courses:
1) Topics in International Economics
2) Topics in Development Economics
Coursework combines traditional classroom lectures with problem-based learning. The courses are project-based and cover economic integration and contemporary issues of ASEAN, especially those of Cambodia, Laos, Myanmar, and Vietnam. Each course includes lecture, discussion, guest speakers, and field trips in Thailand. See here for detailed course descriptions, including objectives, readings, and a sample of the field trip schedule.
The program also includes a week-long fieldtrip to another ASEAN country (location varies each year). | Students enroll in three courses:
1) Southeast Asian Language & Culture - Basics of Thai and Burmese language and culture
2) Mobility & Border Health - Concepts taught in the classroom introduce challenges facing migrants, the complex and dynamic reasons for migration, and the effects of globalization across geopolitical borders.
3) Health Realities in Border Populations - The course takes an interactive approach to learning about border health issues and offers the chance to observe, interact, and problem-solve with migrant community members and stakeholders. See here for details about the program, course schedule, and activities. | This eight-week full-time internship program includes two courses:
1) Internship/Community-Based Learning course: Acquire internship work hours along with meetings and assignments organized and managed by a Thammasat University internship coordinator.
2) Global Academic Immersion course: This interdisciplinary course teaches you integrated skills that instill an understanding of global citizenship. It includes a series of lectures and workshops on Thai organizational structures and culture. Learn teamwork, leadership, ethics, professionalism, and communication skills. See here for a list of possible internship opportunities. | Students are placed in one of TU’s international programs with coursework taught in English in:
• Economics
• Business Administration
• Thai Studies
• British and American Studies
• Politics and International Relations
• Social Policy and Development
Students must take at least three of their five courses within their assigned program. Internships for academic credit are possible in this program and may count as one of your five required courses.
