Scholarship Essay Tips

➔ Financing Your Study Abroad sessions are held on select dates listed on our website.
Visit eap.ucsb.edu/news for details and links to register

Do:

1. Start early. If required, gather letters of recommendation and official transcripts ASAP.
2. Select a program that scholarships favor: outside of Western Europe, year-long, and strongly tied to your academic and/or career goals. If you are going on a program in Western Europe or for a shorter program, explain why.
3. Read each essay prompt carefully and answer all parts of the question(s).
4. Focus on your academic reasons for choosing your specific program (for example: why Spain and not Latin America? Why King's College London and not any other English university?).
5. If you identify as one of these under-represented categories, be sure to say so and include how that has impacted your decision to study abroad (be specific): first-generation college student, transfer student, non-traditional student (e.g. over 23 years old), ethnic/racial minority, LGBTQ, financial need, veteran, student with disabilities, STEM or strict major.
6. Be specific! Include specific course titles, internship company, precise cultural differences, etc.
7. Be concise.
8. Have others review your essay drafts before you submit.
 - We strongly recommend having a writing tutor at CLAS review your draft. They are available for in person drop-ins & online for appointments.
For more information visit: <https://clas.sa.ucsb.edu/services/writing-esl-foreign-language>
9. (If applicable) Create a realistic and precise project proposal. Include who, what, where, when, why, and how.

Don't:

- Don't write about your dream to travel. Everyone applying wants to travel. You are requesting funding to study internationally; focus on specific academic and career goals.
- Don't generalize. You must be specific! For example: instead of "I want to experience a different culture," explain, "I plan to live with a Chilean host family so that I can experience Latino family dynamics first-hand."
- Don't wait until the last minute. Treat the writing process like someone is paying you thousands of dollars to write the best scholarship essay possible (because they are!). Submit early in order to avoid any panic with technical errors or delays.

Do You Receive Financial Aid?

With UCEAP, your financial aid (including scholarships, grants, loans, and VA benefits) will automatically adjust based on the cost of your program.

Please request an estimate of your adjusted financial aid package for your program by emailing your perm number and UCEAP program(s) of interest to the UCSB Financial Aid Office at FinAidEAP@sa.ucsb.edu. You can also use our EAP Financial Aid calculator to get an estimate of your financial aid. Scan the QR or visit: finaid.ucsb.edu/education-abroad-program/calculator

Statement of Purpose (750 words or less)

When preparing to write your personal statement, think about how you will learn and grow from your time abroad. The selection committee is looking for students who approach the privilege of studying abroad with humility, who will be keen observers of their host country, and who will be open to new experiences. In your essay, address each of the points below.

- What sparked your interest in studying abroad?
- How will your program abroad relate to your academic, career and/or personal goals?
 - Address all 3 goals, even if you're not 100% sure of which career you wish to pursue. If the program can possibly relate to a career that you might be interested in, go ahead and write about it.
 - For your academic goals, elaborate beyond "these courses will fulfill requirements for my major".
- What academic preparation have you done for your program?

Personal growth opportunities for studying abroad:

- If you are a student with financial need, please discuss how this has impacted your decision to study abroad.
 - While you may state why you have a financial need, you MUST address the "impact" portion of this.
- What do you hope to experience while abroad? How do you hope to grow personally while abroad?
- IF APPLICABLE: If you are a student who identifies with a cohort that is traditionally underrepresented on study abroad programs, please discuss how this has impacted your decision to study abroad.
 - You must explicitly disclose in your essay how you identify and you MUST address the "impact" portion of this
- Traditionally underrepresented students on UCEAP programs include, but are not limited to,
 - students who have transferred to UC from a community college or state university
 - veterans
 - first-generation college students
 - students on programs where the majority of classes are taught in a language other than English
 - students who spend a full year abroad (two semesters or three quarters)

UCEAP Duttenhaver Scholarship

uceap.universityofcalifornia.edu/paying-study-abroad/scholarships

The Duttenhaver Scholars Program makes awards available for UCEAP students who will participate in a year-long EAP program. UCEAP and the donor, Linda Duttenhaver, value the benefits that come with a year-long program and want to encourage and assist students who are considering this option. These $5,000 awards will be disbursed based on academic performance and financial need. Applicants must have a passion for studying abroad and a willingness to embrace and learn from the host country's customs, language, and culture.

Students may anticipate that spending a year abroad will allow them to learn about themselves and others. When preparing to write your personal statement, think about how you will learn and grow from your time abroad. The selection committee is looking for students who approach the privilege of studying abroad with humility, who will be keen observers of their host country, and who will be open to new experiences.

Essay #1 – Statement of Purpose (750 or less)

Address how the country, language (if applicable), and specific program you selected will help you achieve your academic, professional, and personal goals. Address each of the points below.

Academic objectives for studying abroad:

- Which courses do you plan to take abroad?
 - How will these courses complement or enhance what you have taken at your home UC campus?
 - What do you hope to learn?
- Are there faculty members at your host university with whom you would like to study?
 - If the answer is “no”, feel free to not answer this question.
- Are there departments at your host university that offer unique perspectives on your area of study that are different from your home department?

Career objectives for studying abroad:

- Are there unique opportunities in your host country that will help to prepare you for your career?
- Do you plan to have an internship related to your career interests?

Personal growth opportunities for studying abroad:

- Why did you choose a year-long program?
- What do you hope to experience while abroad?
- How do you hope to grow personally while abroad?

Essay #2 – Statement of Financial Need (250 words or less)

Students who do NOT receive financial aid are eligible to apply as long as they can explain why they have a financial need.

- Provide an essay that explains your need for financial assistance.
- Please include how you plan to personally financially contribute to your program cost and if your family is going to contribute financially.
- Please also include information about any loans you have taken out up to this point.

Be as complete and candid as possible in your essay, particularly if you have any unusual circumstances that affect your eligibility for financial aid or your ability to pay for your study abroad program. Examples include: first generation college student, re-entry student, single parent, parental unemployment, bankruptcy, unforeseen medical expenses, siblings in college, etc. Do not restate information from your Statement of Purpose.

Essay #3 – Statement of Academic Preparation (250 words or less)

Tell us about your academic preparation for your time abroad.

- Explain how your major or focus of study is related to your host country and the opportunities available there.
- If your program is taught in English but you will live in a country where English is not the primary language, explain what you have done to prepare to live in this environment.
- If you have chosen your host country for a specific area of study, please indicate that and how you have prepared to take advantage of those courses.

IF APPLICABLE: The preferred qualification for the scholarship is a 3.0 GPA. If you have a GPA below 3.0, please use the Statement of Academic Preparation to explain why your GPA is below the requirement.

UCSB EAP Gaucho Scholarship

eap.ucsb.edu/finances/scholarships

Please do NOT submit an essay for this scholarship. Answer each question separately and type each response under each question. Your submission must be double-spaced and a max of 2 pages.

- Why did you choose your UCEAP program?

- What type of courses do you intend to take?
 - Please elaborate beyond just the stating the course titles.

- What excites you about the program academically, and how will it enhance your understanding of your major or minor? Why is studying abroad the best way to gain this understanding?
 - Please do not simply state that the courses will be used to fulfill major requirements.

- How will your UCEAP participation fit in to your career/future plans? (i.e. influence your career or graduate studies?) Why is studying abroad the best way to accomplish these plans?

- IF APPLICABLE: If you plan to volunteer, intern, or conduct research abroad, what do you plan to do?

- What kind of challenges (if any) have you faced in deciding to study abroad? What impact did these challenges have on your study abroad plans?
 - If you have had challenges, disclose how you identify and the challenges you've encountered.
 - Challenges may include but not limited to:
 - students with financial need
 - challenges with physical or mental health
 - STEM majors
 - student athletes (in-season, practices, etc.)
 - first-generation college students
 - transfer students
 - students from racial/ethnic groups underrepresented in study abroad
 - resistance from family
